16 November 2016: Our fundamental work on the concept of geo-referenced video has successfully resulted in a US Patent being granted. Entitled "Apparatus, System, and Method for Annotation of Media Files with Sensor Data" it has been published with US Patent No. 9,509,968 on 29 November 2016 on the United States Patent & Trademark Office website. The concept of geo-referenced video is one of the underlying pillars of our GeoVid project.
